The increasing awareness of the importance of education, and its permanent need by all members of society, and the rapid development of technological and communication means, and their integration to life at all levels through hardware and software, and the existence of the serious desire of those responsible of reviewing the educational policies to develop its tools and improve its outputs; all these were fundamental factors of the emergence of e-learning and distance education concept.

In this context, the establishment of E-learning and Distance education Deanship in Majmaah University was stated; to grow with its vision of uniqueness of achieving a principle to improve the quality of teaching and learning for life and to achieve its message of: investing knowledge through what is provided by modern technology means and creating a society of knowledge, and assisting to improve methods of education provided for students according to the highest levels of quality.